

Monthly PCPAA Meetings

We meet on the second Tuesday evening of the month location and time TBA via email. Meetings include business and social topics with an emphasis on sharing art opportunities, resources, etc.

Website Information - parkcityart.com

The website is for current PCPAA members only. Your personal art website can be linked to ours. There may be fees and deadlines for setup or updating your information.

Park City Kimball Art Festival

The Kimball Art Center provides (at their discretion) a local jury privilege for qualifying PCPAA members. To qualify you must be a PCPAA FULL MEMBER and a KAC member in good standing by September as well as during the festival. Volunteerism at the Kimball Art Center and/or PCPAA is a requirement for this privilege. 25% of your jury score will reflect your volunteerism. Please forward your volunteer hours to the PCPAA Secretary. Attendance is also a requirement for qualification. All members interested in applying must attend at least 6 PCPAA meetings a year.

LEVELS OF MEMBERSHIP:

FULL MEMBER benefits are available if you live FULL TIME in Summit or Wasatch County. Full time members are entitled to vote.

PARTIAL MEMBER benefits are available to those who reside outside the Summit/Wasatch County area. Partial members are non-voting members.

Volunteering is an integral part of PCPAA. Full time members are encouraged to volunteer at PCPAA events and/or the Kimball Art Center during each membership year. A record of members volunteer time should be forwarded to the PCPAA Secretary (alix@happydragondesigns.com). This record will determine qualifying status for local jurying in Park City Art Festival, among other things.
